On the basis of this reply, [] is paying the entire hotel bills even though they exceed the maximum TLA. However, paragraph 7d of [] specifically states that none of the provisions of the regulation affect in any way existent regulations and procedures concerning the payment of temporary lodging allowances. Furthermore, we believe that the [] had no intention of considering the hotel rooms rented by newly arrived employees as temporary quarters furnished under [] [] should take action to change its policy on this matter or to request Headquarters for a decision as to its property.
